

Consanguinity is the marriages between full or half-blood relations. According to Mississippi State laws, consanguinity means getting married to a close relative like, father, mother, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, or cousin. Marriage between any one of the above mentioned relationships are prohibited.

This law includes “parents, grandparents, step-parents or step-grandparents, adoptive parents, siblings, half-siblings, aunt, uncle, first cousin, or his or her child’s widow or widower.” Miss Code Ann. § 93-1-1 (2004).

Contact DeSoto Divorce Lawyer about our $500 Agreed Divorce